STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1893.

NO. 72

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

The court of claims allowed over $8,000 at its present term.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Mahan, on last Monday night, a boy.

Elder R. H. Robertson's meeting at the Christian church continues with great interest being manifested. There have been ten additions.

Mr. J. A. Butler left Friday morning for N. C., his former home. Prof. E. E. Wood, principal of the Institute, was not able to be at school Thursday and Friday, but we hope nothing serious is the matter with him.

Mrs. C. W. Lester is in Louisville visiting her daughter, Miss Gertrude, who is in school there. Hon. C. W. Lester and Capt. S. V. D. Stout, left Saturday for Somerset to attend court. R. S. Crawford has returned from Pineville, where he has been attending court.

KILLING.—Last Thursday evening, a few minutes after 5 o'clock, Silas Leforce, son of our jailer, W. M. Leforce, and J. B. Brownne became involved in a difficulty on the road bridge across the river, in which Brownne shot and almost instantly killed Leforce, the shot taking effect in the right eye and passing through the head lodged under the skin on the back part of the head. Brownne is said to have been drinking and said something about officers not doing their duty, including presumably young Leforce's father, which young Leforce resented. One word brought on another until the shooting occurred. Leforce is about 18 years of age and Brownne was about 35. Ed Sutton and Marshal W. H. Ross were both shot in the arm while trying to stop the row, but were not seriously hurt. Leforce shot one time, which struck a button in Brownne's vest and did not penetrate. If it had he no doubt would have been killed also, as it would have entered about his heart. A short funeral service was held at the Christian church on Friday afternoon, after which the remains were interred in the Highland cemetery. Brownne went to Sheriff Manning that night and gave himself up. No examining trial has been had yet, but it is thought that he will be acquitted on the grounds of self-defense. This is the first killing that has occurred in Williamsburg for over six years, which we find is a very good record.

DANVILLE.

(Attorney.)

The Georgetown foot ball team disbanded and forfeited the game to have been played Saturday.

Fish Commissioner Price put 300 young black bass in Dix river. The youngsters were in fine condition, ranging from 2½ to about 5 inches in length and will go a long ways toward stocking the river. A number of young bass were also put in White Oak creek, a mile south of Junction City.

J. T. Hugueny bought in Washington county 60 head of feeders, about 1,100 pounds average at 3c. Font Fox sold to Mr. Lyle, of Fayette, an English Berkshire hog for $25 and to other parties several at from $10 to $15. Monte Fox, agent for Nelson Morris, bought of J. A. & J. T. Hugueny 21 head of fat cattle for delivery on the 20th inst., at 1.

The mercantile agencies report that the repeal of the Sherman act is already having a good effect on trade. It came too late to help fall trade, but it has served to give a time of health to trade that is encouraging in the extreme. Bankers are more liberal in their accommodations, while everywhere the merchants are more hopeful than for a long time.

The insurgent warship Republican ran into and sank the transport Rio de Janeiro which was on her way from Rio Grand to Sul to Rio de Janeiro with troops for President Peixoto. Thirteen hundred of the troops were drowned.

George B. Swift has been nominated by the republicans for mayor of Chicago. As the republicans have control of the council, the nomination is almost equal to an election.

TOURIST RATES.—Round-trip tickets to Lookout Mountain, Tenn., Florida and Georgia points, Asheville, N. C., New Orleans, La., Mexico City, Havana, etc., will be placed on sale by the Queen & Crescent Route on and after Nov. 1st, at greatly reduced rates. The Q. & C. is noted as running solid vestibuled trains to Florida and New Orleans. Direct line to the Southern Tourist Resorts. Finest trains in the South. Ask your agent for tickets over the Queen & Crescent; he will quote you rates or you can address W. C. Rinehart, G. P. A., Cincinnati, O.

Nashville, Tenn., March 6, 1893.
The Stockton Medicine Co., Nashville, Tenn.: Gentlemen: I have had muscular rheumatism and indigestion for a number of years and had lost hope of ever finding relief, as the most skilled physicians had failed in my case, but I am happy to state your Antiseptic has made a complete cure and I do most heartily recommend it to all for rheumatism and indigestion. I will gladly answer all inquiries in regard to Antiseptic. Yours respectfully,

W. E. BATEMAN,
310 Broad Street.

For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford.

GRAB ORCHARD.

J. W. Guest, of Danville, was here this week.

There was a dance at Mrs. Laura Moore's last Thursday night, which the lovers of the fun greatly enjoyed.

The sales of the goods of D. G. Slaughter are averaging over $100 per day; pretty good for the hard times.

There will be a song service Saturday night before the second Sunday in this month at the Christian church to which all are invited. Its object is to learn some new music for the church.

The "Aurora Literary Society" of the college gave quite a nice entertainment Friday. The recitations and essays were very creditably rendered by the girls, and the debate by the young men was especially good. They are taking great interest in the debates.

Mr. W. A. Carson has moved into his new store-room, lately purchased of J. R. Bailey, and has very tastefully arranged his large stock of goods. Beazley & Son have moved their drug store into the store-room lately vacated by Mr. Carson, which is decidedly the best stand for a drug store in the place.

Mr. Hendley McClure with his bride was entertained by his mother, Mrs. McClure, and the band recognized their visit in a pleasant manner and received a liberal share of the good things prepared. Mr. McClure was raised here and has a wide circle of friends and his wife is said to possess the necessary accomplishments that tend to make a good wife.

Our prayer meetings at the Christian church are well attended, perfect order prevails and all seem benefited by the sensible talk of Dr. Doores, who is thoroughly acquainted with the Bible, and we could not help thinking when we left church last Wednesday night that the doctor had certainly not accepted his true calling, or he would be trying to save souls instead of bodies.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Holdam have returned from a two-weeks' stay at the World's Fair. They visited Mrs. Arthur Zeller at Noblesville, Ind., Mr. Neil Turnbull, after an absence of 10 or 12 years, is visiting his homefolks. The greater part of his stay has been in Old Mexico, but he has been in South America and has traveled through most of our Southern States. Mr. Sam Higgins and family have returned to Somerset after a short visit here. Mrs. Jennie Burch and Mrs. Amanda Steinberger have returned from Paris. Mr. Clarence Hardin has returned from the Lone Star State, fully convinced that there is no place like home.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

D. M. Griffith, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Owenton, is dead, aged 63.

Mr. W. H. Mitchell died very suddenly at his home near the toll gate on the Hindsville pike, about noon Sunday. He had had a severe shock of paralysis a year or so ago and it is thought that it was another attack that ended his life so quickly. Mr. Mitchell was in his 74th year and until he received the paralytic stroke was quite an active man. He had taught school for a number of years since his removal from Green county to this section, but before that time he was a preacher in the Presbyterian church. Several years ago he left that church, however, and joined the Christian church and has been devout and worthy member since. He leaves besides a wife, six children, two of whom are married, Mr. G. A. Benedict being one of his sons-in-law. His remains were laid to rest in the McCormacks church grave yard yesterday afternoon, after services at the grave by Rev. W. E. Ellis.

Josie Londford, a girl living in London, committed suicide in a horrible manner, says the Cincinnati Enquirer. The girl blindfolded herself and then deliberately sawed her wrist on a hacked meat ax until the wound was sufficient to cause her to bleed to death. Miss Londford is supposed to have committed her rash act on account of being mixed up in a recent murder case.

Bloodhounds were placed on the trail of the robbers who held up an Iron Mountain train at Olyphant, Ark., Friday night and three of them were captured by a sheriff's party near Jamestown. Jesse Roper, a notorious desperado, for whose arrest a reward of $1,000 was offered some time ago, is the leader of the gang.

Judge Pryor, of the Court of Appeals, decided that no court has a right to prevent a candidate's name from going on the poll books unless there is time to try the question in the regular way.

The World's Columbian Exposition is to establish a big junk shop in the annex of the Transportation building where all the material used in making the show will be offered for sale.

The steamer Volo at Santander, Spain, blew up with its cargo of dynamite and 300 people lost their lives.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

B. F. Goode bought in Casey a lot of feeders at 3c.

Axtell is the only 7-year-old sire with two of his get in the 2:20 class.

Sam T. Harris bought of J. W. Adams three 1,100 pound feeders at 3c.

Wanted to rent a farm. About 100 acres preferred. Jeff D. Jones, Stanford.

John Beck sold to Coffey, of the West End, a bunch of fat cattle at 3 cents.

John Kelly has marked three horses below 2:06: Direct 2:05, Directum 2:05 and Flying Jib 2:04.

At the sale of Middleton & Rose, in Shelby, 21 registered Jersey cows and heifers brought an average of $60.

Leander Davison bought of Erasmus Dunn, of this county, 36 head of 1,150-pound feeders at 3c.—Lancaster Record.

John Thompson bought in Rockcastle county a bunch of feeding cattle at 3c. He also bought a number of fat steers at 2 to 2½c.

Aleyone is the only stallion that has sired two trotters with race records below 2:10. They are Martha Wilkes 2:08½ and Harrietta 2:09.

Axtell 2:12 at 3 years old, for whom $105,000 was paid by his present owner, has more than paid for himself and his fee has been reduced from $1,000 to $300.

Mac Phelpe sold to J. W. Bale, agent of Lehman & Bros., 40 head of fat cattle for export, averaging about 1,550 pounds, at 14 cents.—Richmond Register.

In the match race at Fleetwood Park, between the great trotter and spacer, Directum and Mascot, Directum won easily in three straight heats; best time 2:07.

William Moreland bought in this county last week 150 hogs, weighing from 150 to 250 pounds, at 5½ to 6½c. He also bought 25 feeding cattle, averaging 1,150, at 3½c.

Twelve and one-half million pounds of green, ripe and dried fruit were shipped from San Jose, Cal., the second week of October. Three and a half million pounds of prunes were comprised in the total.

In the 30 day test the Jerseys exceeded in amount of butter produced by the Guernseys by 113 pounds and the Shorthorns by 175 pounds, while their net profit is $37 more than the Guernseys and $55 more than the Shorthorns.

At some recent public sales of Ponca-China swine, Primum & Graham, of Illinois, sold 76 head at $17.80 average. F. M. Lail, of Missouri, sold 92 head that averaged $30. A. M. Caldwell, of Illinois, sold $4 head at an average of $24.75—of this number 39 were last spring's boar pigs and they averaged $28.

CHAN ORCHARD, Nov. 4.—In a recent conversation with an editor of the mountains, I quoted him what the public press of their day said about the first eight presidents of the United States:

1st. Washington was denounced as a monarchist, an aristocrat, a high-flying fop, a dandy, a hanger-on at the skirts of the foul creature, Britain; a tool of Hammon and an enemy to the liberties of mankind."

2d. John Adams, "The vainest, the most irritable, the most wrong-headed of men."

3d. Jefferson, who was the greatest political philosopher the world ever saw, was denounced as the "American Robespierre."

4th. James Madison, "A coward and an imbecile."

5th. James Monroe, "Not brains enough to hang his hat upon."

6th. John Quincy Adams, "Not only an aristocrat and Federalist, but also a corrupt bargainer for the presidency."

7th. Andrew Jackson, "A murderer, a despot, a tyrant, a miserable dotard, an illiterate and ferocious rustic and a man who had Caesar's laudable ambition without a particle of his greatness."

8th. Martin Van Buren, "A fox, a tady, an intriguer and a politician whose only principle was to rise by ignoring principle."

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

At Brownsville, Tenn., Wesley Howard was accidentally killed while on his way to be married.

John Baugh and Miss Lizzie, the pretty daughter of M. P. Huber, were married at Mr. John Long's, Friday.

Both parties live on Green River.

J. Fletcher Marquett, late editor of the Catlettsburg Democrat, was married last week to Miss Helen Logan, of Carter county. May they live long and prosper.

Miss Anna Schilling, of Richmond, ran off with a drummer named Harry Stroth and married him. In a month he deserted her and it now turns out that he has another wife and several children.

Mr. J. C. McClary has received an invitation to the marriage of his cousin, Miss Nora Allene, daughter of Mr. W. C. McClary, to Mr. Thomas Y. Corruthers.

The ceremony will occur at Kansas City, Mo., on the 22d.

—Any good, sound, healthy young man, able to support a wife and too bashful to ask for one, can hear of something to his advantage by addressing this office. A young and lovely lady wishes to marry Jan. 1 in order to obtain a prize. Don't all speak at once.

—At Crawfordsville, Ind., Mrs. Mattie Grinnell Canary, who was engaged to be married on the 16th, committed suicide. She had been a grass widow for two years and her divorced husband on hearing that she intended marrying implored her to again marry him notwithstanding her engagement to another. Her love for her little son made her make him the promise, but no time was set. She brooded over the thought for severals days and finally ended her life rather than disappoint either party.

—For the novelty of the thing and not because there was objection on the part of the lady's parents, Mr. Brutus Warren and Miss Georgia Saunders, of Buckeye, Garrard county, aged 21 and 22 respectively, drove to this place Friday night and as the town clock was striking 11 were joined in wedlock's holy bonds, Rev. A. V. Sizemore officiating. They were accompanied by Miss Nora Ray and Robert T. Whitaker, who stood up with them during the ceremony.

—The First Baptist Church of Charleston, S. C., is the oldest of its denomination in the South. It was organized in 1762 by Rev. William Severein.

—In a rivalry to pay off a church debt, prominent residents of Cross Keys, N. J., may be seen peddling gingerbreads, candy, pepper hash and cottage cheese on the streets.

—The meeting at Barboursville conducted by Rev. John Bell Gibson is still going on. Six young men joined Sunday night, making 43 additions to date. Great interest is being taken and at night the house is packed.

—If you see a Stanford preacher going around with an exceedingly red nose, don't jump at conclusions. It's only a common, every day boil, but it is an exceedingly painful one. If you don't believe it ask Bro. Ellis.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., NOVEMBER 7, 1893

W. P. WALTON.

6 OR 8 PAGES. EVERY FRIDAY.

With the repeal bill passed and "Congress off his hands," the president felt unusually thankful and happy as he penned his proclamation fixing Thursday, Nov. 30, as a day of thanksgiving and praise, to be kept and reserved by all the people of our land. On that day, says he, let us forego our ordinary work and employments and assemble in our usual places of worship, where we may recall all that God has done for us and where from grateful hearts our united tribute of praise and song may reach the throne of Grace. Let the reunion of kindred and the social meeting of friends lend cheer and enjoyment to the day and let generous gifts of charity for the relief of the poor and needy prove the sincerity of our thanksgiving. Then the president laid aside his pen, got his breech-loader and went squirrel hunting with the consciousness of a man who had done his full duty.

A MAJORITY of the democrats voting on the passage of the Voorhees bill were for repeal. The Bourbon democrats of the South, disregarding alike the wishes of their States, the pledge of their platform, the policy of their Administration and the welfare of the country, held fast to their unnatural alliance with the republican silver Senators. It should be the settled purpose of the Southern people thus arrogantly misrepresented to fill the places of these senators, at the first opportunity, with men who represent the South of to day instead of the South of a dozen years ago. The above is from the New York World and to it nearly every true democrat of the South will say "Amen." Let Kentucky begin by retiring Joe Blackburn.

THE L. & N. and Illinois Central have secured control of the C. O. & S. W. railroad, running from Louisville to Memphis. The dispatch says the deal involves about $6,000,000. By this purchase the L. & N. obtains a practical monopoly of all lines in Kentucky west of Lexington and east of the Tennessee river and in addition gets terminal facilities at Memphis which would otherwise have cost the company over half a million dollars. The constitution prohibits the consolidation of competing lines, but it is to be supposed that the roads did not go into such a tremendous deal with their eyes closed.

This is a business administration and no swindling debt over goes if our Grover knows it. J. Hampton Hoge, of Virginia, was appointed consul to Alnoy and had gotten as far as San Francisco on his way to that place, when a message from the State department recalled him. It had been learned that Mr. Hoge had contracted numerous and sundry debts and given worthless checks in payment, and the president very naturally, honest man as he is, thought that he was not the proper man to represent the U. S. or anything else.

SHOULD this reach the eye of any democrat to-day before the close of the polls at 4 o'clock, and he hasn't voted, we trust it will remind him to strike at once for the polls and deposit his ballot for the full democratic ticket. Lincoln county must show the other counties of the district that she appreciates the honor they have bestowed on her county and give Mr. Miller a rousing majority.

THE extraordinary session of Congress, called together for a specific purpose Aug. 7, after taking three months to do what ought to have been accomplished in a week, adjourned finally Friday. In less than a month the body will reconvene in regular session and Mr. Cleveland will again have "Congress on his hands," a remark of his which gave some of the senators so much concern.

EDITOR KNOTT ceases his wicked thrusts at "Old Times," "Dull Times" and "Behind the Times" long enough to write a learned disquisition on the cyster, for which relish much thanks. After the bile gets entirely worked off, the new editor of the Post will show that while he can be like the toad, ugly and venomous, he hides yet a precious jewel in his head.

CHICAGO is a h. o. c. A general fight occurred in the meeting of the council to elect a temporary mayor and order a special election to choose a successor to Carter Harrison. A ballot was finally taken, Swift, republican, being chosen by one vote. He was declared elected and the special election was called for Dec. 15.

In explanation of the failure of Congressmen Ellis and Goodnight, of Kentucky, to vote on the repeal bill, it is stated that they were not in Washington. The explanation is almost as bad as the offense. They were elected to stay in Washington during sessions of Congress and they should have been there.

COL. COLLIER's late employee played the new surveyor, Alfond, a sly trick. They imagined that they alone knew how to run the office and made a demand that they be retained for three to six months. Alfond may be a mangwump, but he knew better than to keep the boys in the trenches back in that way, so he declined to accept their demands and the entire force struck, hoping to embarrass the new surveyor to such an extent as to throw his office into confusion. They didn't succeed, however, for at last accounts the office was running on schedule time. The man or set of men who imagines that he is at all necessary to the machinery of this great government, or that his place can not be filled just as easy and just as well, is either one of Sut Lovingood's natural born durn fools or an intrest ass.

UNDER the title, "The Passing of the Office Cat," Editor Walter P. Emerson bids good-bye to the readers of the Covington Commonwealth, which paper he has edited with marked ability for a year. The valedictory is a gem of its kind and is a very happy mingling of the pathetic, the humorous and the ridiculous, the closing sentence of which is as follows: "With this farewell caterwaul, the left-over office cat of a former tenantry scurries over the backyard fence precipitate escape from the invading new tripodal feline who comes reinforced by a volley of proprietary boot-jacks." Mr. Emerson does not say where he will next occupy the tripod, but it is certain that his ready pen will not long remain idle.

The tale of another boom town is told in the appointment of receivers to sell the property of the Grand Rivers, Ky., Town Co., which defaulted the payment of $90,000 interest on its $1,500,000 first mortgage bonds. Of the hundreds of boom towns of a few years ago, we can not recall one that even holds its own, while many of them sank millions for the fools who rushed in where angels feared to tread.

SENATOR SHERMAN says the democrats will find the hardest fight on their hands they ever had when they go to repeat the Federal election laws. But the Ohio man is not a prophet if he is a statesman. He said the Senate would not pass the Voorhees bill and yet it did. As a prophet Senator Sherman is with-out honor in any country.

The political news from Virginia is not very reassuring. Matters are very much mixed, though the democrats claim that they will elect their ticket by 20,000. The populists make a similar claim, but it is thought that the democratic ticket will pull through by a small majority. Verily the Old Dominion is degenerating.

SENATOR HILL succeeded in tying up the nomination of W. B. Hornblower for associate justice so there will be no Hornblower on the Supreme bench for a while at least. The New Yorker will finally be confirmed, however, after Hill has demonstrated his power to some extent.

It is the unexpected that usually happens and upon this hypothesis alone is there any hope for the democrats to carry Ohio to day. The republicans have made an aggressive fight, while the democrats seem to have utterly lacked enthusiasm.

It doesn't look much like silver money is to be annihilated when we read that orders have been issued to the mint to resume the coinage of standard silver dollars.

JOHN S. RICE is proving by his fight against the democratic nominee for the Legislature in Logan that there is mighty little in him except when he is full-of enthusiasm.

NEWSY NOTES.—Six men were killed by a boiler explosion in New York City.

—According to the new registration, Richmond has a democratic majority of only five.

—The Belle of Nelson distillery at New Hope will make 7,500 barrels of whisky this season.

—Four negroes, including one woman, were lynched in Monroe county, Tenn., for incendiarism.

—The association of colored people, formed to test the constitutionality of the separate coach law, has filed its first suit at Owensboro. It is brought by the Rev. W. H. Anderson and wife, of Evansville, who wants $15,000 damages for being put off an L. & N. train because they insisted on riding in a car set aside for white people.

—God knows it's time. A statement prepared at the Pension Bureau shows that on July 1, 1893, there were 906,012 pensioners of all kinds being borne upon the rolls. Two months afterward there were only 904,398, showing a net decrease during that time of 1,604 pensioners. This is the first time since the war that a net decrease to the rolls has been shown.

—George Tranger, of Greensburg, Pa., aged 84 and a wealthy farmer, was worked to the tune of $5,000 by a couple of strangers who spent the night at his house. They were playing cards together when the old gentleman, who had heretofore greatly opposed cards, saw one of them win $5,000. He joined in the game and won a like amount. To get the money, however, Tranger had to show a like sum, which he did on the following day and which they slipped out of his hands. The old man caught on to the game but it was too late.

J. E. Grabmeyer has been appointed postmaster at Carrollton.

—The corn husk and goose bone have been sized up and the verdict is "coldest winter for 50 years."

—Costa Rica has given the most of its fine exhibit at the World's Fair to the Fairmount Park Museum, Philadelphia.

—Dr. Sanders, a prominent physician of Marshall, Ill., was sent to jail for six months for attempting to induce a postmaster to sell stamps at less than the regular price.

—Bob Marler, the assassin, was sentenced to be hung at Pineville Dec. 15. His attorneys have taken an appeal, but the Messenger says there is little hope of a stay of judgment.

—Police officer George O'Neill, of Chicago, is in jail on the charge of burglary. He was caught by a brother officer, who says he has enough cases against him to send him up for years.

—Russell Harrison, son of the ex-president, has bought for an eastern syndicate the Terre Haute Street Railway Co., for $750,000. He is to be president of the new company.

—A burglar was shot to death at Chicago just after the commission of his crime. A New Testament was found in his pocket with "Paul F. Logan, Louisville," on the fly leaf.

—A delegation from Augusta, Ga., called at the White House and invited President and Mrs. Cleveland to attend the Augusta exposition, which will be held from Nov. 14 to Dec. 14.

—John Warfield, defaulting sheriff of Desha county, Ark., died recently in Honduras, where he had amassed a fortune in the brewing and ice business under the assumed name of C. C. Clemens.

—The Court of Appeals decided in the case of Dr. Rice, of Louisville, who was refused a certificate to practice medicine, that it had no jurisdiction. The doctor is one of the kind who advertises.

—Hon. J. A. McBrayer, vice-president of the Anderson County Deposit Bank, is making a reputation as a snake killer. He has killed 42 this year and in the last seven years he has bruised the heads of 276.

—A decisive battle has been fought between the English troops and the impis of King Lobengula in Matabeleland. More than 500 of the natives were slaughtered by the machine guns of the British.

—Thomas Brown, secretary of the Cincinnati board of fire commissioners, committed suicide by shooting himself through the brain. He was driven to desperation by intense suffering from muscular rheumatism.

—New Mexico and Utah are already well on the way to Statehood, and Arizona is pressing at their heels. Probably these Territories will be admitted into the union of States at the coming regular session of Congress.

—The State Board of Health has ordered the quarantine raised off of Munroe, Ind., which has been in effect since Sept. 11. There have been 146 cases of small-pox and 20 deaths from that disease and the cost to the city has amounted to over $250,000.

—The steamship City of Alexandria from Havana to New York, was burned 25 miles from Havana. It is believed that 35 persons were drowned. The vessel, which was one of the largest in the West Indies trade, had 400 hogsheads of rum on board.

—In a wreck on the Ohio Southern near St. Paris, Ohio, several Italians were killed. The surviving ones became very much incensed with the train crew believing it was their fault that the train was wrecked, and with drawn knives made them leave the scene.

—And here stood, and still stands, Old Grover, firm and stern as a stone wall.

—Not since Old Hickory's day has any other one man's will—not even excepting the Silent Man on Horseback—so dominated the public affairs of a great country. —Louisville Times.

—The report of Assistant Postmaster General Maxwell shows that 16,288 fourth-class postmasters have been appointed during this year. The number of new offices established was 2,621, a decrease of 1,484 as compared with last year. There were 68,403 offices of this class in operation June 30.

—The association of colored people, formed to test the constitutionality of the separate coach law, has filed its first suit at Owensboro. It is brought by the Rev. W. H. Anderson and wife, of Evansville, who wants $15,000 damages for being put off an L. & N. train because they insisted on riding in a car set aside for white people.

—The estimates fix the Louisiana sugar crop at 700,000,000 pounds, about double that of last year.

—In a row at Williamsburg Silas LeFouche was killed by J. B. Braemer and two others were wounded.

—The World's Fair post-office handled nearly 16,000,000 pieces of mail matter during its continuance.

—The assassin, Prendergast, plead "not guilty" on being arraigned and time was given him to procure counsel.

—Lawyer Weeks, who stole a million of dollars and skipped to Costa Rica and was extradited, is safe back at the scene of his crime in New York.

—The report that T. B. Ripy, the large Anderson county distiller, had assigned, is without foundation. The gentleman says his affairs are in ship shape.

—Gov. McCrory's bill amending the Geary Chinese act was passed by the Senate exactly as it came from the House and was signed by the president.

—Hard times have borne with especial severity upon the members of the theatrical profession; something like 3,000 actors and actresses are idle in New York City.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mrs. ED CARTER is visiting her brother in Louisville.

Mrs. BETTY NEVIUS is visiting her daughter in Lancaster.

JOHN BRONITZ is down from Grays to see his family and friends.

Mrs. W. S. KNOX, of Boyle, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. G. W. Stephens.

BENJAMIN FERRILL is back from Beattyville to vote and to whoop the boys up.

MISS ANNIE DUNN spent several days with Miss Jessie Richards at Junction City.

Mrs. BEN S. BOYD, of Knoxville, is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. P. W. Logan.

T. F. SIXK went to Bloomington, Ill., yesterday morning, where he will probably locate.

Mrs. J. A. ALLEN went to Danville Saturday to see Mrs. W. G. Raney, who was quite ill.

Miss ANNIE PICKETT, of Shelby, returned Saturday with Miss Anne Shanks and is now her guest.

THOMAS LASLEY went over to Lexington, Saturday, to see his father, Mr. L. M. Lasley, who is quite sick.

It may interest office seekers to know that Gov. McCreary is in Richmond now, where he came to cast his ballot to-day.

MR. W. D. WEATHERFORD, of Hustonville, arrived Saturday for a visit to Mr. George Weatherford.—Richmond Register.

REV. B. C. SIZEMORE, who has been with his son, Rev. A. V. Sizemore, for several months, returned to Louisville yesterday.

THE failure of Hess, Henle & Co., Louisville, throws our townsmen, C. E. Cox, out of a job. The house has been shaky for some time.

Mrs. W. J. WARD, who was Miss Hanna Fair, of this county, presented her husband with a little baby girl at Hamilton, Mo., last week.

MR. A. H. CUNNINGHAM, the cleverest and most accommodating drummer on the road, was here Saturday in the interest of the Chaffield & Wood Paper Co.

MISS KATE WRIGHT has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Thomas Gipson, at Central Park, Montana. On her return she came by Chicago and visited the fair.

Mrs. G. C. GIVENS and little Lucy Miller will leave to-morrow to visit her sisters, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Goltra and Miss Sallie Moore at Crawfordville, Ind., for several weeks.

PAUL S. D. WILLIS was down from Crab Orchard, Saturday, and expressed himself greatly pleased with the outlook of the High School. A normal class will be organized after New Year's.

MR. REUBEN & WILLIAMS has returned from Indianapolis, bringing with him his relative, Mr. John T. Marshall, who has been sick a long time, with the hope that a change of scene and air will improve him.

MR. W. C. SPRATT, who was recently adjudged insane and taken to the asylum at Lexington, has returned and is apparently all right again. His mind became disordered over religious matters.

THE Stanford Uniformed band, of which Mr. Will Severance is a member, serenaded him and his bride the other night and were invited in to a nice supper that had been prepared for "emergencies."

MRS. ANNA D. VANARSDALE and Miss Minnie VanArdsdale came up from Harrisburg Sunday to see Mrs. H. J. McRoberts, who continues very ill. Miss Minnie returned yesterday, but Mrs. VanArdsdale will remain a week or more.

SURGEON JOHN ELIAS, who has been holding down a government job for several years, has at last been let out and is at home. He thinks it a pretty good joke on the boys that a republican like himself should have been permitted to deaden eight mouths over the line after the people voted for a change.

DR. G. W. BROAUGHA spent last week with his brother, J. S. Broaugh, in Jessamine county. Though living less than 30 miles apart, they had not seen each other for 12 years or more. Both are hard past three score years and ten, but they renewed their youth in talking about the times "when we were boys."

At last the long-looked-for cloaks and wraps are here. Come and see them. Seaverne & Son.

The wild geese went South Friday evening and we may now look for winter soon enough.

ATTENTION HUNTERS.—A complete line of guns, rifles, loaded shells, hunting coats, all at bottom prices. W. B. McRoberts.

If you would buy overcoats or suits for men and boys or cloaks for ladies, misses and children, or boats for winter, come and see us before buying. Hughes & Tate.

Owing to the heavy rain that fell all day Saturday the sale of C. R. Coleman and Mrs. M. E. Eaton was postponed till Friday, 10th. See notice in another column of things to be sold.

BEGINNING on the 8th we will run the blacksmith shop in the rear of our stable, for horse-shoeing and general repairing. We have one of the best anithes in the country and can guarantee satisfaction. Yeager & Yeager.

One of the grand jurors and the Commonwealth's attorney had each aided and abetted in a game of progressive enclosures within the last six months and yet no indictments were found. The writer knows whereof he speaks for he was in the same game.

A HEAVY rain, accompanied by a severe electric storm, commenced to fall Friday evening and lasted till Saturday night. Sunday was bright and beautiful but yesterday was a typical day of the gloomiest of all the months. The indications for to-day are "Fair and Warmer."

PAT McGARVEY and Frank Davis were tried before Judge Varnon Saturday on the charge of cutting and removing timber from the land owned by the heirs of the late M. L. Richards. McGarvey was held over to the circuit court in the sum of $50, which he gave, and Davis was acquitted.

BURNED TO DEATH.—Annie Belle, the three year-old daughter of Dick Ront, colored, was burned to death at her home in Boneyville, Friday morning. The mother was getting breakfast and left the little one sitting by the fire in the adjoining room. Its screams attracted her attention, but it was too late when she got to its side to save her from the horrible death.

WHILE T. J. Hill was feeding cattle in his pasture near P. W. Carter's, Saturday, he saw four large otters running at full speed in the bed of the branch. He ran toward them as fast as he could and shrieked "Otter, otter," a few times which soon brought Mr. Carter and his boys to the scene. Although the animals showed decided pluck they soon killed them all. They were near the same size, about 14 feet in length and weighed 15 pounds.

HIT HIM WITH A MUSKET.—E. W. Graham was lodged in jail yesterday to await the result of the wounds he inflicted on George W. Turner. The men quarreled over a debt when they met at John Ham's and finally came to blows, when Graham hit Turner on the head twice with a musket, producing concussion of the brain. Dr. Carpenter was called, but owing to the lightly swollen condition could not detect a fracture. Turner is in a very precarious condition.

TRAIN ROBBER caught it in the neck at Coal Creek Friday night. Express No. 26, which passed here at 11:30 p. m., was attacked at the water tank there by four men who made a demand that the express messenger open the door. The company expected the attack and had the car heavily guarded, so when the messenger opened the door and the robbers started to get in a volley checked their mad career. One of them fell mortally wounded, another was captured and the others are spotted. Two of the guards were slightly wounded. This kind of reception will have a tendency to discourage the great and growing industry of train robbing and if kept up will break it up entirely.

THE ballots for the Stanford voters are twice as large as the ordinary. There are two tickets for municipal officers, the citizens' headed by the star, and the people's by a boy sailing in a boat. The tickets of the democrats and the republicans are headed as usual by a rooster and an eagle respectively. If a voter desires to put in his ballot for the whole citizen's ticket, for instance, he simply puts the cross under the star, but if he wishes to vote for some of the citizen's and some of the people's he must put the cross in the square opposite the name of the ones of his choice. When you are given your ticket put the cross under the rooster first and take your time on the town ticket.

FULL line of heating stoves just received at Farris & Hardin's.

WHEN you want a present rare, artistic and really beautiful, go to Danks, the Jeweler's.

THE North British & Mercantile, for which W. A. Tribble is agent, settled in full the $500 risk it held on M. O. Vandever's house Friday.

It's all over but the voting. Be sure you put the X under the rooster and deposit your ballot in the box before you close your eyes to-night.

MR. and MRS. R. C. FORD are rejoicing over the advent of their first-born, a son. Mrs. Ford was Miss Emma Garrard, a former pupil of the College here.

DEMOCRATS, vote early to-day, but not often unless you are dead sure you won't be caught and even then you had better think twice before you do so.

JUDGE W. R. GIBSON has no opposition for police judge of Stanford, but every voter ought to compliment him with his ballot for his faithfulness. He has held the office or similar ones for about 30 years.

A TELEGRAM to Annie Baughman, colored, yesterday stated that her son Will, had been seriously cut in a fight at Lancaster by his half brother, Henry Redick. Both negroes formerly lived here.

WM. HINTERS, against whom Elise Levin instituted bastardy proceedings, has again lit out. He is shortly to become of age and get $4,000 and it is for a portion of this pile that the wronged woman hankers.

I AM still agent for the Lexington Steam Laundry, the best laundry in the country, and will call on you for your washing each Monday morning. Laundry returned never later than Friday. Jesse J. Thompson.

DEMOCRATS, a last word with you. Go to the polls to-day, put a cross under the democratic rooster, return to your homes, retire to your virtuous couch and sleep the sleep of the just, conscious of having performed a patriotic duty.

PICKET BOOK.—Lost on the pike between the Danville pike and Shelby City, or between the latter place and Danville, a lady's pocket book containing money and other valuables. Finder will be liberally rewarded by returning to this office.

ARM CRUSHED.—A freight train struck the work train at New Hope, Friday night and injured several of the colored workmen, including Dan Lindsay, whose elbow was crushed. He was brought here and the company's surgeon rendered the necessary operation.

MR. CECENO REYNOLDS received a dispatch from Abilene, Texas, stating that his son, "Ex," who went to that State a month ago, was thrown from a pony and thought to be seriously hurt. Unless he receives information of his improvement he will go to his bedside to-day.

AS THIEVES are getting in their work as the cold weather approaches. The other night two weighing about 300 pounds each were stolen from Bird Matheny's pen and a night or two later P. W. Green's pen was raided to the extent of a good fat one that he had intended for his boarders.

THE till of the Carpenter House bar was tapped Saturday night to the tune of $20. Green Hiatt and Bob Whitley being the last seen near it, suspicion was directed to them and Marshal Newland went on their trail. He found nothing to implicate Whitley, but Hiatt was caught dead to rights with some of the money, $9, on his person, which Mr. Carpenter readily recognized. Hiatt was landed in jail and refused to tell what had become of the balance of the money. He will have an examining trial to-day.

CIRCUIT COURT.—W. B. Smith charged with embezzling $100 from his employees, Proctor & Idol, was given a year in the penitentiary. His attorney, Hou. R. C. Warren, moved for a new trial, but the judge overruled it and Mr. Smith will take his medicine. Bob Thurmond, negro, indicted for house-breaking, confessed to petit larceny and was given 60 days in jail. Cole Carpenter for maliciously wounding Abe Carter will be tried to-morrow. The court adjourned Saturday till Wednesday and the jurors were dismissed till then. This is the last regular week of the term, but as there is an intervening week before the Garrard court, Judge Sauley will hear quite cases next week.

WANTED—A fresh milk cow to keep this winter. Apply at this office.

—Rev. Mr. Tyler, of Boyd's, for whom Rev. W. A. Stalmaker is holding a meeting, preached two good sermons here Sunday to well pleased audiences.

—Bud Stone, the Indiana fiend who plead guilty to the charge of murdering the whole Wratten family, was promptly sentenced to be hung.

—The Georgia Senate killed the cigarette bill passed by the House 19 to 12. So the dudes can continue to addle their alleged brains.

—J. L. Watson, a merchant of Eddyville, was hit by the town marshal, F. M. Waddington, with a cane in an altercation. The blow, at the time, did not seem to have any serious effects, Watson continuing on his feet. A few hours afterward, however, he died.

—This is the way all good democrats will mark their ballots to-day. That mark is all that is necessary to have your vote counted for the straight democratic ticket.
